WHARTON CENTER POLICIES

EXCHANGE POLICY: Tickets will not be held in advance for exchange. Exchanges are only available for productions with multiple performances. If you need to exchange tickets, please mail your tickets to Wharton Center: Attn. Box Office and indicate which performance(s) you would like to exchange. When we have received your tickets, we will seat you in the best available seats for the new performance. If you are moving to a night that is more expensive, you will need to include a method of payment with your returned tickets. If your new tickets are lower in price, the difference will be applied as a non-tax-deductible donation to Wharton Center.

CHILDREN POLICY: Infants and newborns are not permitted. Everyone attending must have a ticket and be able to sit in a seat. Children under 5 years of age are not permitted unless otherwise advertised. Parents will be asked to remove their child/children if they are causing disruptions or are unable to sit quietly.

SEATING POLICY: Every effort is made to start performances at the announced hour unless there is an unavoidable delay. For the consideration of our patrons and performers, anyone arriving while a performance is in progress will be seated only at times designated by the artist and their management. Late arriving patrons may be directed to seats in the rear of the theatre until intermission.

RESTORATION FEE: Wharton Center has implemented a $2.50 restoration fee on each ticket sold for every performance. This fee, common in the industry, will be charged on all tickets sold, not just Wharton Center events. In so doing, all guests who enjoy performances at any of the facilities under the Center's management will participate in maintaining these state-of-the-art facilities.

PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY STATEMENT: Wharton Center prides itself on offering a diverse selection of arts entertainment for the residents of Michigan. Not all productions may appeal to or be appropriate for every person or for all ages. Therefore, patrons are encouraged to familiarize themselves with the shows we offer in order to make informed decisions prior to purchasing tickets.
